World's First Annual Platform for Spiritual Diplomacy | Music | Wellness | Conscious Commerce

📅 14th & 15th December 2026

📍 IEML, Greater Noida, New Delhi NCR

The world seeks. India shows the way.

The world is searching for meaning, healing, balance and belonging. India has carried these answers for thousands of years through Bhakti, Yoga, Ayurveda, Meditation, Music, Seva, Community and Conscious Living.

Global Bhakti Fest is where this wisdom becomes a living global platform. It is a two-day gathering of spiritual leaders, artists, policymakers, founders, brands and seekers coming together through devotion, dialogue, wellness and conscious commerce.

Born in India. Built for the world.

MISSION:

To create India's annual global platform where nations, spiritual leaders, artists, businesses and citizens come together through devotion, dialogue and conscious commerce.

VISION:

To establish India as the spiritual heart of the world, positioning Indian spirituality as the most powerful soft power of the 21st century.

“No country can afford to ignore a room where peace, consciousness and culture become a global conversation.”

Not just an event, A Global IP

Every December, the world comes to India to reset. Just as Davos shapes global economics and COP shapes climate action, Global Bhakti Fest shapes the inner life of the world.

Nations sign the Pledge of Peace. Industries commit to conscious commerce. Communities pledge to heal the mind before they try to heal the earth.

The first edition begins in Uttar Pradesh. The movement belongs to the world.

Every December, the world comes to India — to heal, to connect, to pledge.

Global Bhakti Fest is where world leaders, industrialists, artists, and seekers make one commitment: that the world will be better because India showed the way. We do not just talk about peace — We practice it, We perform it, We pass it on.

“We pledge to heal the mind, honour the earth, and serve the human family - as one.”
